“ Share a memory of James Reggie Milam, or send a condolence to the family... Reggie and I have been friends for around 15yrs, the last 5 yrs we have become great friends. Anytime I needed something if he could help me out he was always ready and willing. That's just the kind of person he was, and this last Mar thru May we spent every day together, in the hay field usually. He taught me how to fluff and rake hay, the loading part wasn't to much fun but part of the job. Or we would work on getting his Belarus tractor restored and running right, and as we all know Reggie liked his equipment to look as good as it ran. Sometimes I would tell him he was OCD was driving me nuts. But I just let him do it his way. After I moved back to Tool at the end of May and he started getting ill I worried about him alot and tried to keep a check on him and I thought he was getting better. He called me when Chad passed away and told me he thought he had the flu, well I got busy with things in my life and hadn't talked to him since then. And last Tuesday morning I just couldn't get him off my mind so I texted him but he did not answer me but I didn't think anything cause sometimes it might take him a day or two to respond. Later on that night is when another friend messaged me to ask if I heard what happened to Reggie, I said No what happened and she told me he passed away today, which hit me like a ton of bricks, I felt so bad because I hadn't checked on him and now he's gone. I hope he knows how much I wish I could have told farewell ole friend and to watch over us left here on earth. But I can't change the past and I know he understands that he'll always be with me. But it sure is going to be hard knowing I'll never get to hear his voice again or drive by his house and he's not there anymore. He was my best friend and I'm going to miss him so much.

“ Our greatest memory of Reggie was him getting all dressed up, we called him "George Strait." Reggie always had a smile on his face and always had a way to bring a smile to the faces of everyone around him. He's one of the best people we've ever known and a great friend. We love you Reggie, you and our memories will never be forgotten... Love you always, love Holly, Sissy, and Bethany

“ My greatest memories of Reggie were just always remembering him all dressed up, we called him "George Strait." Reggie could always bring a smile to your face and he had the best personality. He's one of the best people I've ever known and greatest friend. Reggie loved bailing hay and being outside on his tractor. His spirit was always happy and he always cared. He's irreplaceable and will never be forgotten. R.I.P. Reggie, we love you very much...Love Holly, Sissy, and Bethany
