“ *I just found out my friend passed away. There has been so many things about why I hate we no longer worked together. I loved this man as a brother. He was upright and a just man who was always there to mentor me and encourage everything that I did, whether it be in our work or the lodge.
I want everyone know that this world is missing a vital link to all that is good*

“ To Jami and the other grandchildren, your pawpa was special, even as an adolescent boy (maybe about your ages), attending Van High School.. He always treated classmates fairly, thought first before he spoke, and displayed a strength of character that caused others to trust in him. Not sure how your generation would refer to him, but ours would say "solid as a rock." Highest of compliments.

No doubt, you could tell us lots more about your pawpa. We'd enjoy hearing. Take care of your grandmother (your pawpa would want that).
