“ Oh the memories! I first tried “Grans spiced tea”™ before I ever met her when I met Austin, and I knew Gran was so special by the stories he told about her. Eventually I had the honor to help make her spice tea recipe with her in the kitchen. At one point I almost convinced her to let have the recipe so I could it and sell it at the coffee shop/bakery I was working at, but when I asked, I think Jan thought I was asking her to make all the tea and declined! Haha gotta keep that recipe safe 😊 if I recall correctly she also made amazing sweet potato bread.

Jan has the kindest heart and is so loving and caring for her family! Jan and Dean have welcomed me into their home, taken me to an A&M football game and a track meet, given me first experience shooting an gun, and my first experience rescuing a sick cow that had fallen over... and taken me out for dinner many times. The light, love, and laughter in their home and for their family is contagious when you're around them ❤️ I will still hold these memories at the Childres home close to my heart. Dean, Brian, Pam, Karis, and Austin, I am so sorry for your loss 🌸🙏
