“ We went to school all our life together but it started way before then. Jerry Wayne and Wanda Faye were best friends of my daddy Jimmy Smith and my momma Gloria Ann. We went on family vacations and early family outings. One of my favorite was our trip to Colorado. The whole family has an unique laugh except for Wanda. I could listen to Jeffery laugh all day. I miss my serious talks and him helping me make one of the most important decisions of my life. We were close always, he came to my daddy's funeral Oct 16 of last year after telling me he would never go to another funeral. I will miss his caring special love and conversations on the phone. He was a good daddy and papa. I will and I am missing you and love you so much. Take care of each other, he would want you too
