“ I met Jennie in 2005 when I moved to Red Oak, TX with my 3 boys (newly divorced and looking for a church). God crossed our paths at First Baptist Church of Red Oak and we became fast friends. She had such a sweet spirit and loving heart. Our meetings at Whataburger tickled my heart, to talk about what God was doing and sometimes crying over things we were walking through. She stood by me through some rocky roads and felt so honored when she asked me to be her maid of honor at her and Kyle's wedding. She blessed me in so many ways....too many to mention. You will be missed sweet and precious friend but I know you are singing and rejoicing with our Lord. All is well.

“ Jennie and I went to DBU together 91-92. She sang behind me, so we became friends. I hadn't seen her since college all those years ago until we both joined Voce Paces, a chorale brought together by our college Choir Director, Dr. Stephen Holcomb. We reconnected at the first rehearsal last year, this time sitting next to each other. I Love Jennie's passionate Love for Jesus and His children. Her heart is pure gold. She will truly be missed.

“ There are so many memories of my times with Jennie. She was so good to me and checked in on me regularly. I will forever be grateful for last Thursday and our lunch at Rose Garden Tea Room. We had a great visit and some good hardy laughter. How I will miss our morning chats and occasional outings! May God comfort her family and grant them peace at this sad time.
