“ There isn't a time in my life that both you and Shirley weren't a part of in one way or another. I could, and have many many times, sit and listen to you, Earl, and my dad tell stories of your childhood. Those are some of the fondest memories of my youth. There is no way possible to even scratch the surface of the fond memories I have of you. This will be difficult, its impossible to say Shirley without also saying Jerry, they just go together. Love you Jerry, I can't imagine the reunion you're having in Heaven.

“ My friend Shirley has often called Jerry my boyfriend because h seamed to adopt me after my husband passed away. Jerry was really good at getting stuffed toys out of those cages where you pay 50 cents for a try. He was always bringing me a stuff toy to church. It was all done in love between Jerry Shirley and myself. With all my Love to Shirley and her family during this difficult time. Love, maurine
