“ While being pregnant with our first born Steve and I were having to live with Nan and Paw until we could find a place of our own. Of course me being big as a house, and craving snickers, nan was trying to help me keep my weight down, but to no avail she would periodically find my snicker wrappers hidden in various places. I use to think that she had special sensors to smell out the wrappers,,Imbo. I will so so miss you Nan, you were always there when my own wasn't. I love you and will never be forgotten.
