

Jim Beasley

December 3, 1947 - December 12, 2018

Jim Beasley, age 71, passed away on December 12, 2018. He was born on December 3, 1947 in Mt. Pleasant, Texas. Jim was a Master Electrician and founder/owner of J. B. Electric since 1984. He resided in Hideaway, Texas for 24 years with his wife, Carolyn Beasley. Prior to that, Jim lived in Dallas and Carrollton, Texas for 24 years. Jim is survived by his wife, Carolyn Beasley of Hideaway, Texas; step-children, Roxane Weddle of Boston, Massachusetts and Scott Chinnock of Carrollton, Texas; 4 grandsons and 1 great grandson. Jim also had many friends in Hideaway and will be greatly missed. Jim was preceded in death by his mother, Blanch Adams; aunt, "Aunt E" Elitha Smith; and step-son, John Chinnock. The family requests that in lieu of flowers, donations may be made to the American Cancer Society. The family thanks Traditions Hospice for their sincere care and support.

Tribute Wall

“ Jim Beasley

October 05, 2023 at 02:48 AM

“ Jim Beasley

October 05, 2023 at 12:01 AM

“ Carolyn, so sorry to hear about Jim. I will always remember the trips we took together and every time I use our Hearth Room I remember that he did that fabulous work. Sorry I haven't been around lately, but with work and Bob has had major surgery as well, we've been terribly occupied. You both are in our prayers and good thoughts are sent your way..

Debbie Byerly - December 14, 2018 at 04:33 PM