“ Dearest C. James and Marilyn and families: My heart goes out to you at this time of loss. We are never ready to give up our loved ones. I am praying that the God of All Comfort will draw very near to you all. Don't you know Uncle Pete, my mother, aunt Jane and Uncle Buzz had a big happy time when she arrived. Oh, I forgot to add Grandmother and Granddaddy as well. I regret we can't come. God's richest blessings be yours at this time of loss.

“ When Marilyn's parents visited Lubbock, I would walk over to spend some time with them. They always seemed so glad to see me and wanted to know all about what I had been doing and about my children and grandchildren. They were always so concerned about every one but themselves. I will remember their kind and generous manner. One thing about Jimmie. I visited her in Lindale once, and thought I would gain 20 lbs before I left. She always made sure her guests were fed well. I cared a great deal about her and will miss her sweet smile.
