“ Millie, Shelley, Joe Jr., and Kem,

Our hearts are heavy this morning. Joe Sr., was a blessing to know. He and my dad worked many years together at Kelley Springfield and Sweet Millie was such a precious staff member at WHS, I was privileged to go to school with Shelley and Joe. What an honor to know you all. Randall and I love you all and are praying for the entire family. May God give you all peace and comfort.

“ Joe, our sincere condolences to you, Kem, and your family. We remember the Thanksgiving get-together at your house several years ago. While the rest of us were "stuffing" ourselves, your Dad and Lee, oblivious to food, were comparing their golf swings. We are glad that we got the opportunity to meet your Dad. May he rest in peace. You and your family are in our thoughts and prayers. Aunt Joan and Uncle Lee

“ Joe Floyd was always a hero to me, the older brother I never had, the most handsome cousin ever! As a teenager, I swooned over him, but after he married Millie, he really became a hero. A great husband, father, family man, loved by many, respected by many more. My heart goes out to Millie and their children and the rest of the Denton family. Love - Vicki McDonald Cooper
