

Joe S. Hardcastle

April 4, 2008 - November 15, 2004

Mrs. Joe Smith Hardcastle, 96, passed away on Monday, Nov. 15, 2004, at the home of her daughter in Grapevine.

Funeral services will be at 1:00 p.m. Thursday, Nov. 18, 2004, at Caudle-Rutledge Funeral Home, 206 W. South, Lindale, Texas, with Dr. Bruce Cresson officiating. Burial will follow at the Lindale City Cemetery.

Joe was born April 4, 1908, in Lindale, the daughter Mattie Louise Edwards and Samuel Richard Smith. She attended schools in Lindale and Oklahoma City and attended Texas Woman's University and West Texas State University. She taught school in Wheeler County and Amarillo between 1928 and 1981.

She was a member of the Methodist Church and later the Baptist Church. She was an active member of First Baptist Church in Amarillo from 1949-1991 and Columbus Avenue Baptist Church in Waco to present.

Joe was an active member of the Genealogical Society, Colonial Dames, DAR, Daughters of the Confederacy and in 2001, completed and published a book on her family genealogy.

She was preceded in death by two sisters, four half-sisters, three half-brothers, and two great granddaughters.

She is survived by two sons, Harold Hardcastle and wife Peggy, Donald Hardcastle and wife Dana, a daughter, Joe Ann Standlee and husband Bill; her sister Miriam Vale; 10 grand children and 16 great-grandchildren.

Memorials may be made to the Alzheimer's Association or a charitable organization.

Tribute Wall

“ Joe S. Hardcastle

---

October 05, 2023 at 02:48 AM

“ Joe S. Hardcastle

---

October 05, 2023 at 12:01 AM