

Joseph Robert Hinna

March 30, 1999 - February 5, 2026

Joseph was born in Pasadena, Texas on March 30, 1999 to Robert and Juanita Hinna. He has lived in LaPorte, Texas, Lindale, Texas, Midway, Texas and most recently in Overland Park, Kansas. Joseph passed away February 5, 2026 in Overton, Kansas. Joseph began building a foundation for knowing Christ when he was 5 years old at the First Baptist Church of Lindale, where he was involved in Sunday school, VBS, and the Awana program. He prided himself in memorizing scripture & earning all his badges. Soon after, he accepted the Lord as his Savior and was baptized at The First Baptist Church of Pasadena. In his youth, Joseph enjoyed many sports—soccer, basketball and baseball, and family time together for fishing, hunting, board games and movies. He was an extremely smart student and particularly loved math, science and technology. He had a beautiful voice and enjoyed being in the Lindale High School Choir, performing & competing in UIL. Joseph is preceded in death by his Grandmother, Billie Rae Russell, Uncle Paul Roy Hinna, Uncle James and Aunt Frances Pierce. He is survived by his Grandfather, Paul Hinna, his Grandmother, Linda Pierce, his parents Robert & Juanita Hinna; his brothers: Robert Wayne Hinna, Matthew Malek, James Robert Hinna and Noah Ray Hinna; his Uncle Jim Hinna and Aunt Liz Hinna, Aunt Marta Hinna, Aunt Mary and Uncle Randy Carter, and a host of other family members. Joseph passed all too quickly through this life and will be sorely missed. Psalm 34:18
