“ We have been friends most of our lives. More like a sister than a friend. We have shared so much. Went to school together, same class. I moved away after nursing school but we always kept in touch. Since I have been back in Texas (2010) we have been even closer. After being widowed, I married one of our classmates and she was involved in our relationship and cheering us on and was my matron of honor when we married. I will miss her very much but I know she is with the Lord and her loved ones who passed before. Her last years were difficult but her family has been very kind and helpful to her. God bless them all.
