“ How do you sum up 93 years of living? I only knew Joy around 18 years, but, that was 18 years of knowing someone who was always kind, loving, caring, friendly, and who always treated me with respect, cordiality, and kindness. When I would go to my wife’s family get togethers, I would spend most of my time talking with Joy, and I learned that she had been a working woman, and had accomplished a lot during her life. But, for me, her biggest accomplishment was staying true to her Christian values. She was an avid reader, and a great cook. Her candy and cakes were something I will always remember with fondness, because it seemed she added love and caring as HER “secret ingredients”, and THAT was what made them so special. I prefer to think that Joy has not left us, so much as she has just climbed to a higher position so she can look over us better. My life was made better for knowing Joy, and for having received her love and kindness, and after all, how can any of us aspire to a better memory from those whose lives we have touched.

Rest in Peace Joy. I hope we will see one another some of these days again. With love, and in Memory of Your Life of Service to Others....

~Respectfully submitted,

Dr John Raymond Baker, and Wife, Tammy Bennett-Baker##imported-begin##Dr. John Raymond Baker, BSc,DC##imported-end##

“ Jerry, Joy, Gail, Charlie & family. God blessed you with such a wonderful mother. I loved her so much also. I remember when I was young and would come to her house in Neches she treated me as though I was her own. She was such a wonderful Christian lady. She lived what she believed and wanted everyone to know God as their personal Savior and have the peace that she felt in her heart everyday. Agnes & I enjoyed the meals that we shared with her at your home (Joy & Jerry) I loved to hear her pray. May we all remember the love that she gave all of us. She is at rest and in perfect peace now. No more pain and most of all her body is perfect and she is with her love ones & Savior May she rest in peace love you all Frank & Agnes###imported-begin###Frank & Agnes Petri###imported-end###
