“ Where do I start? There so much to say about this Godly women that is so dear to my heart. I know she loved unconditionally, I was riding with them in the back of the van, I heard them singing, I thought it was the radio! She has a beautiful alto voice that I'm sure God is enjoying now. She has always been there for her kids and grandkids, she at times helped me in the church nursery. She could do the Charleston, something like that, some kind of fancy foot movement, back when my boys was little. It was always a blessing at Thanksgiving and Christmas to eat with such a loving family with fellowship, good food covered with a sheet and ate on all day, laughter, playing the guitar, singing and kids playing football and horseshoes. She was steadily taking care of everyone. I love her so much, I'm thankful she is where I am going one day. See you later mom
