“ You will never know how much you meant/mean to me. From smelling hair spray in the morning, to seeing you crinkle your nose, to watching you get frustrated with papa, to missing your voice, your hug, your warm hand across my back when you knew i was upset, how you use to have papa wake me up when it was time to eat sugar toast, bacon, etc. (You always were the best cook) though i could never bring myself to like your goulash, id give anything to sit right there at that dining room table and NOT like your goulash with you again. What id give to just hear you say 'nicky'. Or call you on the phone and say 'do you have bread? Milk, cheese? (And pickles) And you'd laugh and tell me to come over and we would eat 2 to 3 grilled cheeses and pickles with milk. You always WERE my favorite person and you always will remain just that. I love you, i miss you. I miss papa, i miss Christmas, it's just not the same without y'all. Its hard to go on, some days it's hard to just breath. You wouldve loved Hudson, his dark thick hair.. I could see it Now, you holding him and smiling.. Saying 'all that hair'. Id give anything to just know you're okay. To know not a DAY goes by that you and papa dont cross my mind, so much has happened that i wish i could tell you. I took for granted all the time i did have with you, and all the more time i would've had with you had i come around more thru the past yr. Ill never ever, forget you. And you'll never be replaced. Don't forget me.

“ My goodness, no one tells me anything until the last minute. I really enjoyed seeing Joyce and everyone there at Aunt Brenda's. It brought back many memories I have with Uncle Floyd and Aunt Minnie and all of you. My Deepest Sympathy goes to all of Joyce's family. What a wonderful lady I will miss you. God Bless....Bob Dykes

“ My mom has always thought the world of you and said such a good person you were. I just want to say this is the closest family I have ever seen and been proud to be a good friend of the family . May God bless you more and guide her to go with the lord and the rest of the family that is waiting there for her that they will be with us when we go too. Gotta love the Lord
