“ I am so sorry for your loss. I taught Ryan first grade years ago and have always loved your entire family. We were in therapy together several years ago and you always were smiling, even when losing your foot. GOd bless your special mother and three children. May God give peace to all of you and know that you are prayed for.##imported-begin##Wendi Hicks##imported-end##

“ Sharon and family,
I am so sorry for your loss. I just found out this morning and my heart ached for each of you. We can rejoice that she is now healed. May the love of the Father wrap his arm around you.
