

Kenneth A. Romero

May 26, 1952 - March 12, 2007

Born Kenneth Alonzo Romero on May 26, 1952 in Denver to the late Joseph and Mary Virginia Romero, Kenny was a lifelong resident of Colorado before moving to Hideaway, TX two years ago. He passed from this life on Monday, March 12, 2007 in a Tyler, Texas hospice center after a lengthy illness.

Kenny was employed many years for the railroad as an engineer and brakeman and served his country as a veteran of the Vietnam War in the US Army.

A private memorial service will held at later date.

Kenny was preceded in death by his parents, several brothers and sisters and a son, Troy Romero.

Survivors include his wife, Janis Romero of Hideaway, TX; four brothers, three sisters, three grandchildren, numerous nieces and nephews and many friends.

He loved life, his family and friends and had a passion for all God's creatures.

Tribute Wall

“ Kenneth A. Romero

October 05, 2023 at 02:48 AM

“ Kenneth A. Romero

October 05, 2023 at 12:01 AM

“ Many things I saw that man go through from the time we were kids. He always had a way to make you laugh, even at times he should not. He was always my daughter's "mean ol biker", whom she adored. Kenny leaves a great gap in many lives, but also leaves us all with a laugh, hug and love.##imported-begin##Donetta Zach##imported-end##

March 19, 2007 at 05:36 PM

“ Kenny lived life to the fullest. He was not afraid of anyone. He was a great friend to me and my dogs. He will be missed, but forever loved.##imported-begin##Lynn Schimpf##imported-end##

March 19, 2007 at 11:08 AM