“ *I had the pleasure of knowing Grandpa Black for a time in my life. He was a friend of my Pepaw's (Emmitt McIntyre) and I loved to hear him speak of him. He always left a smile on my face. My condolences and prayers are going up! To Glenda, Myka and Jacob....I love you all and will be thinking of you in the days to come. Be grateful for the good times!
Love Sophie*

“ He was my uncle Keneth and a loving father and grandfather. This man was always trying new adventures in life. He didn't always conquer them but you can't blame him for trying.. He loved his great grandchildren very much. This man was known by many and loved by all, he will surely be missed. Love to Glenda and Myka and the grandkids and great grandkids. God bless you all.

It has been many years since we have seen or talked with any of the family. We share you deep loss and pray GOD will be with you to help you at this terrible time of loss. Always remember the good times and that the Father will not let you carry this alone. Look up my friends-- look up and pray. From Eddie and JoCarroll Allen and family.
