“ I have so many good memories of Ken growing up to come up with just one. He was a great brother and will be missed. If his travels brought him this direction he always stopped by to visit. My sympathy goes out to family and friends.

“ Ken Clasen was one of the Gideons who reached out to my church and I shortly after I arrived in Winona in 2008. He was a classy, Christian gentleman with a sweet spirit and always a bright smile.
