“ Oh Kim! I will so miss all of our talks each week about our families. We had so much in common with our kids and grandkids the same ages. Not only did you keep me organized and my house clean, but you were my friend. You were there during my happy times and you were there when I cried. You were there when I was in good health and you were there and worked twice as hard when I was down. You were always so faithful and worked so hard in everything that you did for me. You always took care of everyone else and now it is time for you to enjoy your new home and just relax in Jesus' arms. You are going to be so missed, but we can rejoice that we will see you again!
