“ Lanelle was one of the first people I met when Ray and I came to IBC back in the '80s and she was so sweet. From time to time I filled in for the secretary in the office and we had a good time together. I have missed her since she moved away. She and Ray may be visiting now!

“ A very sweet and loving LADY. A lady in every sense of the term. Always had a smile and positive attitude whenever I talked with her. We will miss her and will miss not being able to visit with her in the future. No words can offset your loss, just know that the Hunt families are here for you going forward.

“ When I first met Lanelle in 1989. She was the keeper of the accounting books for the church office at Irving Bible Church. I'd see her in the office working whenever I'd be at IBC for Women's Ministries or a meeting. But it was a few months later that I suddenly realized she was Pam Bennett's mom. Lanelle was always so sweet and cheerful and I loved the way she had decorated her Irving home. We hated to see them move to Lindale but knew it was a good move for everyone since Skip and Pam were already there. We're so sad to know Lanelle is gone but we do know exactly where she is now: in her heavenly home. From Bonnie (Mrs. Gene) Saur, 04.14.13
