“ Karen her night nurse told Lariah that I got her a Christmas Gift and I had informed her that if she did not like it that I would get her something else, well she opens the gift and her eyes are as big as saucers, she said a baby I said yes, she is almost like a real baby she does everything she even has a heart beat, she can breathe and cues, you just have to take care of her, her birthday was that day, she could name her and we could order her a birth certificate, Lariah look at me and said how in the world do you think I am going to take care of a baby with 5 little brothers, I said, " oh Lariah I did not think of that, don't worry honey I will get you something else, little did I know I would not be able to give to her. Go to show you how much she loved her brother's.
