“ I always enjoyed visiting Larry and his family when we came to Texas. He had that smile that made you grin and he teased me a lot, especially with my Washington accent. May precious memories be a comfort and bring him close to each and every one of you as you grieve his passing. Thankful for the good man he was and the legacy he leaves behind. Cousin Joni Bilbrey Smith from Everett, WA.

“ I will always think of Larry when my purple salvia blooms in the fall. He stopped his tractor one day when I was out working in my flower bed and asked me what that purple flower was.....he thought it was the prettiest thing. I will miss seeing him out in the pasture working with his cows. He was a good friend.

“ I always picked at Larry when he came in Dr. Millers office and got on the scales to weigh, some how I managed to get my foot on the scales to make him think he weighed more. I will never forget the look on his face. I tricked every time he came in to weigh. I loved it ! You are in my prayers Sherry! I love you !
