Mrs. Snider was born on July 15, 1922 in McKinney, Texas and was formerly of Dallas before retiring in Lindale in 1974. Mrs. Snider was also past president of the Dallas Police Officers Wive's Auxillary and founded and volunteered at the "We Care Corner" in Lindale for many years. LaVerne loved to laugh about the funny things people do and loved her Lindale home, "The Country Place", where she and Truman retired in 1974. She collected glass and ceramic angels, volunteered at the church every chance she could, and was extremely organized, which made her a great person to have in a club. LaVerne had more friends than we could count and loved them all dearly, and loved to travel and saw a whole lot of the USA. She was preceded in death by a Son: Dennis Rhea Snider.

Survived by her Husband of 62 years: Mr. Truman Snider of Lindale; 2 Sons & Daughters-In-Law: Richard Allen & Kellie Snider of Irving; Michael Edwin &
