“ This life will never be the same without you my beautiful sister/ one of my best friends. I’m going to miss your laughter, your beautiful smile, your amazing heart and love of all creations. Girl...remember that one time we had an air gun fight INSIDE my house and you shot E right in the middle of his forehead and gave him that Indian dot...ha ha what about the “home brew” and Tauaca night!! All the endless weekends at Willies singing and dancing and trying to dance our 1st Born’s out 😊 the laughter of me breaking my leg most recently when I FaceTimed you while the kids went on to get the bamboo!! I have loved you for nearly half my life, and I will continue to love you through to my last breath until I can hug you again. We have been through so many thick’s and a hella lot of thins, end the end it was the 3rd hardest day of my life...but there is no where else on earth I would have been. Thank you for loving me and always being there for me. It has been one of my greatest blessings in life having you in it. Even on the day you went into the hospital you still had a bit of laughter in you about that oxygen tube. My heart hurts so incredibly bad. I keep saying this isn’t real, it didn’t happen, I was there and I still don’t believe it. All the times I missed by life and “I don’t have enough time” I should have gone, I should have spent more time with you. I should have called or text more....and none of it I can take back now. None of it I can replace. I’m sorry I didn’t make more time, you was definitely worth it all. You touched every single heart you ever ran across. I wished I knew how to love like you, it’s my mission to try to learn! The entire town and from Heaven to earth there are hundreds and hundreds of hearts 💕 that have been touched, changed, bettered, and impacted from your love, your light, your smiles, and your incredible love for children. Love is to be loved by you!!! Rest In Peace my beautiful until we see you again.

“ Sweet Leah, you were always such a bright smiling face in the mornings when I dropped the boys off. This last year has been one of the hardest of my life and most mornings I was struggling but you always encouraged me to keep going. You were so kind to my boys and for that I’ll be forever thankful. I will miss our talks in the middle of Walmart and seeing you at first kids every Tuesday and Thursday. Prayers for the Couch family ”

“ Oh Leah, my sweet friend. 15 years of friendship was not enough girl. We'll see each other again I know. I was honored to be there with you in your last moments on this earth. I know as soon as you took your last breath here your next one was in Heaven with the Lord and with Harley. Thank you for being the best friend ever and for sharing your babies with me, your family is just the best!! I have no words to describe your loss. I just want you to know how much I loved you!

My precious Leah you will truly missed by so many. Your smile was infectious. You made everyone want to smile. Knowing you for 18 years was a honor and a privilege. Your family has always been a special part of my families life. Keeping B for you and Jo when he was a baby was such a joy for James and I. I know you are safe In the arms of Jesus and they rejoicing in your homecoming through those beautiful gates of heaven. I will miss you so much, but every time I see the boys I will give them lots of hugs. RIP SWEET SWEET Leah!!!
