“ Lee was a good friend I met in Palacios. I met her when I sat next to her in the community choir. She was so personable and easy to get to know. We shared many meals and outings together. I exercised with her for several years. She was a woman of strong faith and set an example for others. I had been missing her already since she moved from Palacios to Lindale, but she seemed really happy to be there. I could still enjoy phone conversations with her. My condolences to her family and friends and all who loved her.

“ I had the pleasure of meeting Lee when she moved into Lindale. I grew up here so I knew a lot about the community. Lee would stop by and say, where is the Post Office. Another day she would come in and say, I need a hairdresser. Of course I hoped her. Lee really got involved in the First Baptist church. I do believe she joined the quilting group the Busy Bee's. For Christmas she bought me a Christmas present she made. It was my honor to get to know her. Lee loved her Daughter's so much. Thank you for sharing her with Lindale.
