“ *I dealt with Lee on several occasions at Gregg Appraisal District. I liked him immediately. He was so calm and collected as well as funny. I took him on an hour cruise of Longview. He listened and was so patient. You could tell by his demeanor he was a Christian. I was deeply saddened by his loss. My deepest sympathy to his lovely wife I met one time, his mom and dad, and extended family. what a wonderful son and glorious husband. I can only speak for myself, but I know I will see him again in heaven. Rest in peace Lee you are now safely embraced in the arms of our Savior Jesus Christ Amen###imported-begin###Gary C. “ Dear Lee,
You were certainly one of few people who come to mean so much too many. Your humor, good-will and enthusiasm will surely be missed. No one knowing you could not know how important your family and how strong your concern for others were, but what will not be forgotten is that wide, lazy smile of yours that said everything was copasetic , the good times, the not so good times and the difference you made.
Rest in peace for your battle has been fought, your war won and God has another honorable soldier.
Much Love, Marcia###imported-begin###Marcia johnson###imported-end##

“ I met Lee, many, many yrs. ago.He was fixing to graduat high school, we met on a ranch that he was working at. He was always so gentle with the horses. His soul was just in general, a gentle, caring one. May he rest in peace and watch over his family and wife, next to our heavenly Father###imported-begin###Molly Breazeale###imported-end##

“ LEE STARTED WORKING AT THE APPRAISAL DISTRICT SHORTLY AFTER I DID & I IMMEDIATELY FELT A CLOSENESS TO HIM, HE WAS LIKE MY GRANDSON. HE WAS A FINE FELLOW & SO GOOD WITH THE TAXPAYERS, HE WAS SO LAID BACK & MADE THEM FEEL AT EASE & THEY KNEW THEY WOULD BE TREATED FAIRLY. HE WILL BE MISSED BY ALL WHO KNEW & LOVED HIM. HE WILL BE THE ANGEL WITH THE MISCHIEVOUS GRIN ON HIS FACE SITTING NEXT TO THE LORD.##imported-begin##JO STILES##imported-end##

“ I met Lee 2 years ago to do an audit of my company. I had a good visit and enjoyed our conversation about business and life. I had more due than I wanted but never felt &quot;stepped on&quot;. Lee was fair and I left the appraisal office with good feelings. I know he loved his family and enjoyed his life. Your loss is indeed sad but the lord will welcome his presence.##imported-begin##Dale Grider##imported-end##
