“ I know that you and Eileen were planning on coming up to visit. I am sorry the visit could not happen. But we will all meet again in Eternal Life.

“ I have fond memories of Linda teaching me to play Dominos when I was visiting. She was a very efficient teacher, eager to share her knowledge and get to playing some games. Coincidentally, I also remember having the best time while repeatedly losing at Dominos that evening.

“ So sorry to read about Linda. I worked with her at Clarkson Home Health in Omaha in the 90's. What a sweet person and I loved her TX draw! I can remember her saying all she wanted to do was to get back to TX and sit on her porch and drink sweet tea. Sympathies to her family. Rest in peace. Renee Hanson Gestel

“ I hadn't seen Linda in many years, but when she lived in St. Louis, we were pretty good friends. We had some good, and not so good experiences!! She watched my kids, made my daughter's recital outfit. She was wonderful, always smiling, always giving. I will keep the Hibbeler family in my thoughts and prayers. Rest in Peace, Linda 🙏
