“ Lonnie was a dear, dear friend in High School, he wasn't living with his family back then, and he was miserable. I talked my parents into adopting Lonnie to give him a home and his own room, and a car to drive at 16yrs old. We had many memorable days and evenings doing guy stuff having fun, always a good time. He was now not just a friend, but my brother, he completed our family, I had two sisters, then came Lonnie, and now I had a brother, too. When he became his own man, he left us for parts unknown, but remained in my memories. Recently he made his way back to Corsicana and met with another old friend of ours, he told me Lonnie wanted to see me and our family again. I have been living in Houston for the past 28 years, sadly he didn't call me since I didn't have his phone number. But the rest of my family still live in the area, I would have been happy to take him around to see everyone, I wish he had, we could have had one more hurrah together. I pray God takes care of my Brother, and looks after his family in their time of loss and sadness, may blessings be upon them. See you soon, Lonnie.
