“ Lori Kay, you left us too soon. Your effervescent personality and your beautiful, contagious smile always made people feel warm and welcomed in your presence. You always had funny stories to share, and my favorite is the cat and the dryer (I chuckle thinking about it!) This moment all seems surreal. I know your pain-free now and I'm happy for you. To be in the presence of Jesus--I can only imagine. You have many loved ones to say hello to in Heaven, and maybe you'll see my Mom and Dad. You're already missed, a lot. I am so thankful for the times we shared as little girls, as well as the memories of family reunions and holiday get togethers, these times will forever be treasured, and precious memories. You'll live in our hearts forever, and I know we will see you again---what a happy reunion day that will be! Heaven has gained an Angel. We will be seeing you....Love you Lori Kay!!

“ So very sad to hear of Lori's passing. She was smart, talented, cheerful and caring. I will remember her as one of the most beautiful people - in every sense of the word - that I've ever known. My thoughts are with her family. May they find comfort in memories of a life well-lived and a lady well-loved.

“ So, so sorry to hear of Lori's passing. She worked for me at Comfort Suites for some time and I got to know her well. Everyone loved Lori, she was a bright light around the hotel and we hated to see her leave us then and now. She will absolutely be missed by all who knew her. Prayers for her family.

“ No words will begin to describe Lori's many wonderful qualities adequately. Adjectives are going to fail here. I was her sister in Christ, co-worker and friend for five years. It was always a joy. Her example was great and her light shined brightly. When I voiced a criticism of something she gently reminded me of the other side of the story. She was funny, caring, generous and one of the best examples I've ever had. She was proud of her son, daughter, parents and wonderful friend, Don Lee. And she LOVED her grandson Fin. We can barely face how it will be without her cheering us on with her smiles and good heart. My last text to her said "two weeks without you Lori is two weeks too much." You are not replaceable girl. Love you so much. Terry T
