“ Lula Bell Furr Hinton will be greatly missed by many. She and I shared correspondence over the years about Furr genealogy, and it was always a delight to hear from her. My thoughts and prayers are with her children.

“ It has been my privilege to serve as pastor for Lula for the last several years. I will remember her faithfulness to be in the house of the Lord each Lord's Day. I can still see her singing to the Lord during the worship service.

She has fought a valiant battle with cancer for many years. She may have finally succumbed to this dreaded disease in the flesh, but PRAISE GOD she trusted in our Savior who has already won the victory over all our enemies including death.

Our entire church family is lifting James and his family up in prayer. "May the Lord fill your vacancy with His tender love and mercy," is our sincere petition to heaven.

Brotherly,

Charles Johnson, pastor
Rosewood Baptist Church
