

Margaret Ann McKay

March 6, 1934 - December 29, 2014

Margaret Ann Cox McKay was born in Jacksonville, TX on March 6, 1934. She died in Lindale, TX on December 29, 2014 following a lengthy illness.

Mrs. McKay was preceded in death by her husband Jesse Speed McKay, her brother Curtis Cox, her parents LaRue and Lena Cox. She is survived by her three sons: J. Scott McKay (Kristi) of Sugar Land; Douglas McKay of Baytown; and David W. McKay (Agnes) of Baytown, and three grandchildren: Christopher McKay of Sugar Land, Katherine McKay and Helen McKay of Baytown. She is also survived by her brother, Bob Cox (Barbara) of Waco, her sister-in-law Ruth Owens of Nashville, TN, and many nieces and nephews.

Mrs. McKay was a resident of Lindale since 1967. She taught 2nd grade in the Lindale schools for 18 years. She was an active member of First United Methodist Church of Lindale, where she taught children's classes, adult classes, served on many committees and participated in United Methodist Women. She was also a faithful visitor to residents of local nursing homes.

Mrs. McKay loved the beauty of nature and took enjoyment in God's smallest and greatest creations. She loved her family, her church, and her community.

A service of resurrection was held on December 30 at Lindale City Cemetery. Memorial gifts may be made to First United Methodist Church, Lindale, or Heart to Heart Hospice Foundation.

“ Your mother was an amazing woman - never a doubt that she loved the Lord and her family. She always had a smile & a kind word to everyone she met. I know she and your dad are smiling down on their son's and their families knowing they did a good job!
