“ *Dear Steve and children: Marilyn was a delight to know and be with. It was always a pleasure to visit your home and enjoy being in the room with her wonderful loving personality. Wayne loved and admired his siblings and parents so much, and Marilyn was a great example of the fine people in that family. My sincere sympathy for your loss, many years ago, and just now. “ Steve and family - We are so saddened by the loss of Marilyn. She suffered so long. She was such a fun person and we will always remember the great times we had with you and your friends at those country dances. We have been blessed to have known you two and you will always be in our hearts. Alice & Jon Cradler

“ What a wonderful woman Aunt Marilyn was! Not only pretty and smart, but she had a way of spreading such joy and happiness everywhere she went. Some of my greatest childhood memories were visiting Aunt Marilyn and Uncle Steve, and in sharing their love of family and hugs. She will be greatly missed and often thought of. Wishing the family strength and peace of mind in knowing she's in God's embrace. Love you all, Risha

“ Aunt Marilyn! Thanks for bringing joy to the whole family and a smile to everyone you met. I remember when we brought toddler Phoebe to yours and Steve’s place and she exclaimed “Another Daddy Jim’s!” and you laughed, peals of joy, just as I remembered from my childhood...we are thinking of you...
