“ We met Mark years ago when he had property beside our parents in Red Springs. After our dad passed away, our mom sold the property and house to Mark. He made the whole place look amazing. He has been a close friend of the family ever since we met him. He will be sorely missed by our family. We will miss his attendance at birthday lunches and family gatherings. He and Marlesa are just like family to us.

“ John and I met Mark through work. We did the structural engineering for him on a residential project in Tyler. We immediately became friends and thoroughly enjoyed working with Mark. He will definitely be missed in the construction business. Our sincere condolences to his family.

“ Mark was like my third big brother. The finniest memory came at my wedding 25 years ago. A film capture of mark being a silly goose in the background of one of my photos. Only to realize the photographer was my mother. She was the person taking that picture of him being a monkey!

We were all so happy when he found his true love with his Wife, God and Home. We will miss him ever so much. You were the simply the best!

With love, but hey dude well see you soon,
