For almost 44 years now I have had the blessing to call Mark my brother. He has helped me so many countless times during my life, and I am a better man because Mark is my brother. I didn't tell Mark goodbye on Monday, because I believe that my brother has just now really begun to live alongside Mother, Gene and all of the others in our family that have flown on to Heaven. But most importantly, he is now flying with our Heavenly Father! And though he got a kick out of flying airplanes here on Earth, I cannot imagine the joy of the flights that he is having today in Heaven!!! I love you Mark, and I will deeply miss you, but I will reunite with you and our wonderful family up above again!! Until then, enjoy your blue skies and give Mother a big hug for me please!

FAMILY IS EVERYTHING

“ God bless Mark. He was my first friend when I moved to Texas. He was full of love and integrity, fun and good humor. I know the angels sang and he danced with his Mama and Aunt Cass when he arrived in Heaven. God bless his family. I will miss him.
