“ Aunt Martha I just heard today you went to be with Jesus. I know my daddy was waiting there to greet you when you arrived along with many other loved ones and friends. I loved popcorn so very much you gave me a popcorn popper . I used it for years and years and always remembered you . I would not throw it away for years when it finally quit working because it was so special . There is a quake in the atmosphere right now knowing you are gone . I will see you again one day because Jesus made a way for us . I will never forget you . I love you . Your niece Shirley Cooper Stout.
