

Mary Evans VanSant

May 30, 2011

Funeral services for Mrs. Mary Evans VanSant age 82 of Hideaway are scheduled for 10:00 am Thursday, June 2, 2011 in the Lindale First United Methodist Church with Dr. Bryan Brown and Dr. Jack Cox officiating with burial to follow in Tyler Memorial Park Cemetery in Tyler, and under the direction of Caudle-Rutledge Funeral Home in Lindale. Mrs. VanSant died Monday in a Lindale nursing center.

She was born July 4, 1928 in Wheeler, Texas and was formerly of Dallas before moving to Hideaway in 1980, and was a member of the Dragon Ladys Mahjong group and was one of the founders of the Hideaway Variety Luncheon Club and was at one time active in the Dance Club at Hideaway. Mrs. VanSant was preceded in death by her Husband Mr. J. W. "Van" VanSant on November 4, 2008 and by 2 Sisters and 2 Brothers. She is survived by her Sister, Laverna Fillingim of Wheeler, Texas, and by Nieces and Nephews, Carol and James Hardage of Hideaway, Sunny and Smith Keene of Rockville, Maryland, Casey and Vic Taylor of Arlington, Beth and Jim Alvey of Wheeler, Texas, Ken Evans of Tyler, David Hefley of Briscoe, Texas, Peggy and Pat Anthony of Orlando, Florida and by several Great and Great Great-Nieces and Nephews.

The family will receive friends at the funeral home in Lindale from 6PM to 8PM Wednesday.

Memorials may be made to the Lindale First United Methodist Church.

Tribute Wall

“ Mary Evans VanSant

---

October 05, 2023 at 02:48 AM

“ Mary Evans VanSant

---

October 05, 2023 at 12:01 AM

“ Will Miss you Aunt Mary. As you enter the &quot;Church triumphant&quot; will always remember your sweet smile and how you can make a hot dog dinner so elegant. Love you bunches and may God wrap his loving arms around you, Van and your endearing family.##imported-begin##Nancy Powlen##imported-end##

---

June 01, 2011 at 09:01 AM