“ Our prayers and thoughts are with you, Bobby, and your entire family. You and Mary Ann are precious neighbors and we so enjoyed all our front porch visits and Mary Ann's delicious rum cake she made for us. She was a beautiful woman, inside and out and we will miss her spunk and vitality and sweet Spirit. Your love for Christ and for one another is evident and an inspiration to us. Thank you. “ Mary Ann was always bright and friendly to me. I will never forget her smiling face and words of encouragement. She shared her rum cakes with me and lots of other people when they were sick or had a death in their family, Mary Ann loved her family and all things Lindale. Her husband, Bobby, told me one time if you needed a job done, you gave it to Mary Ann, and she would gt it done .I will miss seeing her at the Whataburger and the DQ. She will be missed by lot of people in this town.
