“ So saddened by the news that my Dear Cousin has passed, but happy for her to be meeting our Father in Heaven. I was not close with Mary Evelyn as a young person, but always looked up to her. She was very pretty and nice to all. Prayers go out to Ron and the family, I know she will be so missed.

“ Mary Evelyn was one of my first cousins, she was always such a sweet person. I remember years ago that she made the remark that she wanted the gospel preached at her funeral because it might give the opportunity for someone attending to hear it that might not otherwise. She was a wonderful Christian lady. I will be praying for you, Ron, and the family, I know you will miss her so. Georgie
