“ Lee, was so shocked when Ben sent this to me today. You and your family are in my thoughts and prayers and remember sweet times with you and Maryann. Give my love to your daughter.

“ I am so sorry to hear about Maryann's home coming. She was a good friend to my grandmother, Fannie Mae and me. I will be out of town on the day of her service however I will be lifting all of you up in prayer.

“ My husband and I met Maryann and Lee just 3 short years ago. I loved her the moment I met her and I know she loved me. She was not just my precious friend, she was my sister in Christ, my partner in prayer and one of my biggest fans. She always encouraged me as I believe I did her. She always said no one would believe our unique meeting and bond we had. I absolutely know that Maryann is with our Savior and we will be united again. She loved her family so very much and shared that with me often. My prayers are with you all. I will cherish our talks, watching the eclipse with you and our meetings every time we came into town. I love you.
