

Maydene Margaret Prather

September 16, 1932 - December 5, 2014

Maydene was born in Wortham, Texas on September 16, 1932. She moved to Austin as a young child where she lived until 1960 when she re-located to Houston. In 1994 Maydene and her husband Bill moved to Henderson, Nevada for 3 years. But Texas was their home, and they chose to move to Lindale in 1997.

Maydene is preceded in death by her husband, William Jack Prather, daughters Janis Dene Walton and Jorja Jo Carroll, and grandsons Jeffrey Paul Pierce and Sean Robert Parcell. Surviving relatives are daughter, Judy Lynn Metzger, son-in-law Jefferson Metzger, grandchildren: James Martiness, Erin McCarty, Paul Morris, Stephanie Morris, Sharlee Hanson, Kaylee Metzger and Kory Metzger. Maydene has 7 great-grandchildren that call her "GG".

Maydene started her professional career as a key punch operator at Xerox. She was fast and a quick learner with ambition. She stayed in the administrative assistant field for many years and at her time of retirement, she was the executive secretary for the vice-president of Sun Oil. Maydene also had a Secretarial Temp business for a short time. The name of her business was Mayco in Houston.

Maydene and her husband Bill had Houston Oilers season tickets through the 1970's and 1980's. Luv Ya Blue was their motto and she was one of their biggest fans. Maydene raised and bred Yorkshire Terriers, several were champions. She had numerous ribbons to brag about. She truly loved her puppies. After moving to Lindale, Maydene quickly made lots of friends. She joined the Red Hat Society and the Lindale Garden Club which she held the president seat twice. She was also involved with the Rotary Club and Chamber of Commerce. Above all Maydene's favorite activity was shopping then lunch!

Maydene was 82 when she passed on December 5, 2014

“ I have known Madene for many years due to my friendship with her daughter Judy. Madene was a very sharp dresser and purchased many of her cloths at boutiques. One of my favorite memories was when she was cleaning out her closet and invited me and judy over. She sat in her chair while I tried on cloths, many of which I took home with me as we laughed and giggled.
