“ For as long as I can remember Aunt Nancy was part of our family. It was always "Jack and Nancy" never one without the other. As hard as it is to say goodbye to not one but both of them in such a short time, I know that they are together again for eternity. Nancy was always kind, loving and gracious. I cherish the time I got to spend with her only a month ago. Even in her grief she welcomed family and was truly touched that we were there. I'm forever grateful that I had those hours with her. Rest peacefully and know that you were greatly loved and will be sorely missed. Love and hugs to Patty and Anita.
