“ We are so sad to hear of Mrs. Nellie's passing.
She was always one of my favorite people. I still have the red roses she gave us ladies at the City office for Christmas. she will be missed. Our love and prayers certainly go out to Owen and all of her family.

“ I have so many fond memories of Ms. Nellie. Back in the day when Delphine and I hung out I can remember how good Ms. Nellies cooking was. Her sweet potato pie was the bomb. I practically lived at their house. We attended church together also for many, many years. She will be missed by many people but in a much better place than we are. Our prayers are with the family..
