“ I was new to Lindale in 1989 and developed an acute eye infection. I was unable to drive myself to the emergency room. I drove literally, into the yard of the pastor of Damascus Church to ask for help. The pastor contacted the Grahams who drove me to the ER, waited for me to be seen by the doctor. Next day, I had to visit an ophthalmologist. Mrs. Graham kindly assisted me with transportation again. She then brought dinner to my home for a week. God Rest her Soul. I will never forget the Grahams kindness.
