“ To Neta's family: My family and I attended Faith Temple Baptist Church with Neta for many, many years. We loved and admired her integrity and love for the Lord. I know you will miss her, but she is happy and healthy now with her Lord and her loved ones and friends who have gone before her. May God comfort you. The Keys Family.

Dear Neta's Family,
Neta was my friend and neighbor for several years. I am so sad to hear she died. I wish I had known so I could have attended her funeral. She was such a sweet, honest person. I have such precious memories of times with her...painting Christmas sweatshirts, working jigsaw puzzles while eating frozen grapes, picking blackberries and getting covered in chigger bites, church-wide singings & gamenights in her den, sitting on her deck while feeding her ducks, watching her cut out wooden toys on her jigsaw, talking to her for hours at a time, helping her with awesome VBS crafts, listening to her proud voice as she told about her kids and family, hearing the way her voice got soft & teary as she told me stories about Lloyd, going on a mission trip to help a church on Navajo reservation, eating yummy lunches at the local Burger and Fries, helping with Backyard Bible Clubs in the Davis's backyard, laughing with her at every church fellowship...I could go on and on. When I lived in Poetry...it was so nice just knowing she was across the road from me. She was the best neighbor and friend a person could hope for. I'm going to go work one of her wooden puzzles now! Praying God comforts you and meets your every need.
