“ I meant George and Pat in 1972 in Kaiserslaughten, Germany. I had and always remember them both has my Adopted Parents and all the fun trips, dinners, and sleep overs on my days off in the Army. Both of them treated me like one of their own from then on until both were called home. Now they are together along with Tommy and each of their own parents. If it wasn't for my family in Germany, I would not be here today. George, Pat, Howard, Tommy, and Vicki will always be in my past, present, and future thoughts. I will miss them dearly. They are gone, but not forgotten. Rest in peace.
Your loving Adopted Son
