

Patsy Fay Winston

January 29, 1919 - September 25, 2014

Services for Mrs. Patsy Fay Winston, age 95, of Winona, are scheduled for 2PM on Sunday, September 28, 2014 in the Caudle-Rutledge Funeral Home Chapel in Lindale with Rev. Brad Crawford officiating. Interment will follow in the Lindale City Cemetery. Mrs. Winston died on Thursday, September 25, 2014. She was born to the late Eugene and Nora Ethel McCall Wansley in Lindale, Texas on January 29, 1919. She grew up in Lindale where she attended Lindale High School and Business School in Tyler. Mrs. Winston was secretary to the superintendent of Lindale ISD for many years and was a member of the Winona First United Methodist Church. She met Joe Milton Winston in Lindale and they were married for 47 years until his death in 1995. They lived in Lindale for 15 years and then moved their young family to Winona, Texas. In her later years she was known as Nana to all of her grandchildren, great grandchildren and all of their friends. Nothing pleased her more than to spend time with family and friends. She love watching her children, grandchildren and great grandchildren grow up.

“ Mrs. Winston Ben's Nana and J.W.'s. Our Todd thought she and Mr. Winston were the greatest. She was one of the most precious ladies we were privileged to meet when the boys started kindergarten. A true angel that lived among us on earth. May her family know how we all hold her so dear to our hearts. Praying and sending our love. The Crabtree family
