“ Al and I are so happy we traveled in July to see Paul and Joann. Our two grandsons loved the dogs and the tree house out back. It was raining and so Joann entertained them with the dogs in the living room. They were so saddened at the passing of Mr. Paul. I know that Al loved his cousin and held him in high esteem. Al loved his Aunt Mayo and Uncle Otis and their wonderful children. He has so much love for all of Paul's siblings. Sad but happy that Paul is now healed and in the presence of God. We love you Joann and will be praying for you and your sweet children and grandchildren. God be with you all and give you great comfort.

“ My heart goes out to the Paul Tilton Family as well as my prayers. It was an honor to serve in missions with Paul and Joann and their children in Thailand. Paul was a preaching and praying man of God. Heaven is a brighter place today because Brother Paul answered the missionary call and we will rejoice together in the not too distant future. Love to all of the Tilton family. Danny Dunham
