“ *Friends for 55 years and never met a more caring and loving person. Despite many trials and tribulations, she remained strong in her faith and never questioned her plight. We are forever blessed by knowing and loving Peggy. God Bless and Keep her family.

“ I moved into the condo across the street from Bill and Peggy in 2003. They were both delightful neighbors. Peggy was often in her kitchen making something delicious. I think she taught a few of her caregivers those wonderful recipes too. Bill and Peggy came for cocktails one evening when I learned they liked bourbon. I think we shared some of our Kentucky bourbon trail finds. She introduced me to reviewers guild. She has my thanks. It's one of my favorite activities. It took me over a decade to find out we are both PEOs. . Different chapters. She moved up to Tyler quickly after Bill passed away. I missed her. Still waiting for new neighbors in that condo. May she Rest In Peace.
